International Masters Publishers, Inc., on behalf of Wildlife Explorer, has made a donation to Crown Ridge Tiger Sanctuary — a non-profit organization dedicated to providing a permanent home to animals that have endured neglect, abuse or other undesirable situations.

NEW YORK, September 16, 2009 — Reflecting its strong commitment to providing valuable information about wildlife and wildlife conservation efforts, International Masters Publishers, Inc. (IMP) recently announced its support for wildlife conservation and education programs. IMP has made a generous donation to the Missouri-based Crown Ridge Tiger Sanctuary.

Crown Ridge was founded in 2004 by Joe Scott Sr. with the mission of providing a safe and caring environment for exotic cats. Through both on-site and off-site presentations, tours, youth programs, and its website, Crown Ridge seeks to educate the public about the importance of habitat conservation and wildlife preservation.

“We are extremely proud to lend our support to an organization that shares the same values that we promote through our Wildlife Explorer® collection”, says Divanna Gilleaudeau, IMP spokesperson, “Our goal, which we share with Crown Ridge, is to educate young and old alike about the world’s most fascinating creatures and in doing so, remind us all to respect and protect the wildlife we live with.”
