Jay Suites, a leading provider of luxurious office space, recently expanded to another floor at its Grand Central location. Situated in the heart of the big apple, the center offers an exceptional identity to any business, with solutions ranging from fully-furnished office space to virtual office plans. Conference rooms, break rooms with complete kitchen facility, and other business services are available as well.

The firm bills itself as more than an executive business center. The growing executive suites firm promises to be there to support your business with a hand-picked team of trained, experienced staff. The serviced office space provider taps into the expertise of architects, contractors, designers, electricians and consultants to make its executive suites both accessible and attractive.

Jay Suites is founded on an innovative concept that aims to create a professional, supportive environment by combining exceptional design with cutting-edge technology. The company currently operates another center in Manhattan's financial district, and is slated to open another in world-renowned Rockefeller Center.

Jay Suites focuses on three elements at each of its locations: modern décor, cutting-edge technology and security and accessibility. Let's look at each area as it relates to this New York-based provider of flexible, full-time luxury office space.

First, modern décor. As Jay Suites sees it, the significance of the first impression cannot be overstated. That's why all Jay Suites locations feature high ceilings, elegant lighting, marble halls and Venetian plaster walls. Jay Suites conference rooms are equipped with glass-top tables and Italian leather chairs. To be sure, Jay Suites offers a clean, sleek, 21st century modern look that helps clients project the right image.

Next, cutting-edge technology. Jay Suites leverages digital environments. All Jay Suites packages include access to state-of-the-art equipment and services, such as high-speed Internet, Cisco VOIP telephone system, a next-generation copier, and conference rooms equipped with digital whiteboards and surround-sound systems.

Finally, security and accessibility. Jay Suites sets out to offer safety without compromising productivity. The company accomplishes this with strategies that range from doorman-secured buildings to biometric access control entry and verification systems. What's more, Jay Suites offers executive business centers in strategic New York locations just minutes from mass transit train and bus lines.

What about lease terms, start-up costs and monthly fees? In a nutshell, it will cost you less than $5,000 to get into a Jay Suites serviced office unit. That includes a two-month security deposit. Monthly office rents start as low as $1,000 and include everything above. And lease terms are as short as three months. For a location in the hot spots of New York, Jay Suites offers flexible terms and luxurious offices.
